

Professional Profile

Name:

Henrietta Branston, IEB member

I joined the governance board for The Saints Federation in September 2022, because I think that our children's schools are central to our community, and I wanted to learn more about the ways I can support our education system as a volunteer. I work for the local authority Children's Service and bring my experience of quality assuring curriculum design in the higher education sector.